

Meet the Teacher

About me

Hello! My name is Karissa Roberg. I live in Holdrege with my husband Brett, my daughters Kinley and Alayna and our black lab, Max. I enjoy spending time with my family at the lake and outside. I also enjoy watching movies. This will be my 4th year teaching preschool at Loomis and I look forward to getting to know each of the students!

I grew up in Holdrege with my parents and two brothers. I knew from a young age that I wanted to work with children and eventually decided to pursue teaching.

Education

I graduated from the University of Nebraska at Kearney in May 2014 with my degrees in Early Childhood Unified (Birth-3rd grade), Elementary Education (K- 6th grade) and Mild/Moderate Special Education (Prek- 3rd). Shortly after becoming the preschool teacher at Loomis, I pursued my masters in Early Childhood receiving my diploma July 2016. I look forward to taking further classes that interest me and help me better support my students.

My Mission

My mission statement as preschool teacher at Loomis Public School is to inspire kids to love learning and encourage them to be good friends by guiding them to follow limits and expectations through interactive play.
